evilevilcouch@gmail.com: after reading through that one, it may be interesting to have an approach to what you're writing (not necessarily now, but eventually down the road, as different perspectives are outlined within any body of work) on the economic impact of the stuff you're investigating evilevilcouch@gmail.com: that'd add an objective, tangible reference point in which readers could understand the impact in their lives. i think in general it'd be hard for the average reader to understand the implications of all the persona management crap
